

CHARTER OF THE
UNITED STATES
INTERNATIONAL TELECOMMUNICATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE

1. Committee's Official Designation

The official designation shall be the United States International Telecommunication Advisory Committee (hereinafter "ITAC")

2. Authority

The ITAC is established under the general authority of the Secretary of State and the Department of State as set forth in Title 22, sections 2656 and 2707, of the United States Code (U.S.C.), and the Federal Advisory Committee Act ("FACA"), 5 U.S.C. Appendix. The approval of this Charter by the Under Secretary of State for Management under delegated authority constitutes the determination by the Secretary of State that the establishment of the Committee is in the public interest and essential to the conduct of the business of the Department of State.

3. Objectives and Scope of Activities

The purpose of ITAC is to advise the Department of State with respect to, and provide strategic planning recommendations on, telecommunication and information policy matters related to the U.S. participation in the work of the International Telecommunication Union (ITU), the Organization of American States Inter-American Telecommunication Commission (CITEL), and the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation Forum Telecommunications and Information Working Group, and other international bodies addressing telecommunications and information policy issues.

The functions of the ITAC and any subcommittees will be solely advisory, and each shall endeavor to reach recommendations on the basis of consensus. Any final decisions based upon the work of the ITAC shall be made by appropriate officers of the United States Government.

4. Description of Duties

ITAC activities are related to the duties carried out by the Secretary of State arising out of the Constitution, Convention and Administrative Regulations of the International Telecommunication Union (Geneva, 1992), as amended; the Statute of the Inter-American Telecommunication Commission (Managua, 1993); the Convention on the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (Paris, 1960); the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation Forum Telecommunications and Information Working Group; and the foundation documents of other international bodies addressing telecommunications.

The ITAC will provide advice to the Department on telecommunication and information policy matters relevant to U.S. engagement in and proposals to international bodies addressing information and telecommunications matters. The ITAC will provide advice on other related matters, as requested.

5. Agency or Official to Whom the Committee Reports

The ITAC shall report to the United States Coordinator for International Communications and Information Policy ("the Coordinator"). The ITAC will, as appropriate, maintain contacts with other domestic and international bodies having related interests.
